GIANTS LAND NO-HIT PITCHER

WITH THAT HARVARD GAME IN VIEW

Bob McAllister, Frisco's Clever Middleweight, Is Here Looking for Action—Willie Ritchie Springs Another New Idea.

Copyright, 1913, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World).

BOB McALLISTER, the San Francisco middleweight, is in town. He has come East accompanied by his brother, and hopes to get an opportunity to show before New York fight fans. McAllister has had only five professional bouts, winning three and getting two draws. He is regarded on the Coast as a remarkably clever boxer, with the footwork of a Jim Corbett. No less an authority than Willie Ritchie, the lightweight champion, says that McAllister ought to "open up" around here. According to Ritchie, McAllister is the ideal ten-round fighter, fast and shadowy in his style, with a fairly good punch, but he would outbox rather than knock out his opponents.

In appearance McAllister is tall, slender and boyish. He says he can make 130 pounds without trouble. He talks well and looks the part of the gentleman boxer.

Yale is going to pull off something absolutely new. Penn must have gone through us for another touchdown!

Hart's Appearance Like Tonic to Tiger Squad

Captain of 1911 Team Joins Coaching Squad and Puts Life Into the Men on the Field—Phillips Back in the Game.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 28.—The lesson of the Dartmouth game last Saturday is not going unheeded by Princeton, but a new spirit led on by the enthusiasm and exhaustive energy of "Eddie" Hart is showing among the men. An earnestness and eagerness to learn and correct their mistakes has sprung up and the hardest kind of work is going on on Osborne field.

The return of Hart, captain of the 1911 championship team as well as the team of the year before, and all-American tackle for his last year, has given a great impetus to the men on the field. "Eddie" takes a man on the field under his wing and puts new life into him and encourages him. Hart was a great fighter in his day, and that fighting spirit overflows in his coaching.

The team which practiced yesterday on the still muddy gridiron was a team except in personnel. While there was only slight practice, the men worked as they had never worked before. The coaches are going to whip them into shape and drive them as hard as they can. The men are willing, and, as Hart says, Princeton is not lost for the season.

WHEN Leach Cross learned that Willie Ritchie had gathered more than $50,000 during his short career in the ring he got a toothache. Cross had the opportunity to get a huge lot even larger than that which Ritchie has "eaten." He was offered the chance to box Volgaist before Ritchie got a match with the former champion. Cross and not Ritchie would have been the champion now if Cross and his business representatives could have been reasoned with. That is why Leach got a pain when he read about Ritchie's wealth. He missed the chance of a big career last year and he realizes it now.

Army and Navy Planning Three-Game Baseball Series Next Year for Title

A PLAN has been launched to bring about a three-game baseball series between West Point and Annapolis next spring. The scheme originated, it is said, with the athletic authorities of the Naval Academy, but whether or not it will receive an endorsement from Capt. John H. Gibbons, superintendent of the academy, and final sanction by the Navy Department is a question.

The midshipmen are delighted over the project and hope that it will crystallize into definite form. Heretofore the rival academies have been meeting annually on the diamond, the games being played alternately at West Point and Annapolis, and under the arrangement next year's game is to be played at the Naval Academy. The new plan is for the Navy nine to go to West Point to meet the cadets, and later on to stage a double-header in Annapolis, the dates for the contests to be agreed upon.

K. O. Brown and Baldwin Meet in Boston To-Night

They Are Booked for 12 Rounds—Rivers and Russell Will Get Into Action at New Orleans.

By John Pollock.

THE battle menu for to-night offers two good fights between lightweights who are well known to the followers of the boxing game all over the country. The fighters who will clash in these scraps are Knockout Brown of this city and Matty Baldwin of Charlestown, Mass., for twelve rounds before the Atlas A. A. of Boston, and Joe Rivers, the Mexican, of Los Angeles, Cal., and Frankie Russell of New Orleans, who will battle for ten rounds at the Baseball Park in New Orleans.

Unless Eddie McCorty sticks to the agreement signed by his manager, Tommy Walsh, and boxes Jack Dillon for 30 per cent. of the gross receipts in Milwaukee on Nov. 5, he is likely to be barred by the State Athletic Commission of Wisconsin. McCorty demands a guarantee of $1,500 and says he won't fight unless he gets it.

Matty Baldwin has signed articles for a battle with Johnny Griffith, the lightweight of Akron, O., in a ten-round bout before the Summit A. C. of Akron, O., on the night of Nov. 11. Joe Shugrue was offered the bout with Griffith, but as he had other bouts on his manager passed it up and Baldwin was substituted.

Jim Coffroth, the fight promoter of San Francisco, is now trying to arrange a twenty-round bout between Mike Gibbons and Johnny Clabby, to be fought on the latter part of November. Eddie Heddy, manager of Gibbons, says he will accept the bout if the weight question can be settled and the terms are satisfactory. Gibbons and Clabby would draw a big crowd on the Coast.

The ten-round bout between Mike Gibbons and Marty Walsh, which was scheduled to be fought at the Twiford A. C. of Brooklyn on Friday night, had been postponed until Nov. 10 at the request of Eddie Heddy, manager of Gibbons, while in the star bout Young Gradwell and Carl Victor, the Newark lightweights, will battle.

The Brown Gymnasium A. A. will hold a boxing show to-night. Matchmaker Jack McCarthy has arranged two ten-round bouts to be decided. In the first Eddie Lennon will swap punches with Young Steger of Hoboken, while in the star bout Young Gradwell and Carl Victor, the Newark lightweights, will battle.

A bout has just been clinched between Johnny Dundee, the local Italian lightweight, and Willie Beecher. The managers of the fighters agreed to have the heavy weight in 121 pounds at the ring-side. They are now waiting for some club to offer a percentage of the gross receipts or a guarantee.

In a letter to the writer, Jim Maloney, manager of Bombardier Wells, the English champion, says that he is certain that Wells will defeat George he was well bested.

Giants' New Cuban Pitcher, Palmero, Is a Southpaw of the No-Hit Variety.

He Is Only Twenty-two Years Old and Speaks Only Spanish—Made Record Against Birmingham Team.

BY BOZEMAN BULGER.

I F baseball form, as shown in Havana, Cuba, holds good, the Giants, next season, are to be blessed with a wonderful left-handed pitcher. Young Mr. Palmero, who was bought by McGraw two months ago, has just pitched three wonderful games against the crack Birmingham club of the Southern League, winning them all. A cablegram to Rafael Conte, the correspondent, who is still in New York, says that in the second game of the series in Cuba Palmero let the Birmingham batters down without a hit. In the first he allowed three safe hits and he also scored a shut-out in the third.

Mr. Conte says that Palmero, who is but twenty years old, is by far the best pitcher that Cuba has produced. And this is a pretty strong statement in view of the fact that Mendez, the big black, was considered, in his prime, to be one of the greatest pitchers in the world. McGraw during his visit to Havana said that if Mendez was a white man he would pay $50,000 for his release from the Almendares.

Palmero bears none of the facial characteristics of the Cuban. He has light hair, blue eyes and ruddy complexion. Conte thinks the young fellow must have some Irish blood in his veins and that his ancestors were originally from England after losing a ten-round decision to a French fighter in Paris who weighed twelve pounds more than he did. Daly says he was robbed of the decision.

Joe "Young" Shugrue, the Jersey City crack lightweight, and Jimmy Duffy, the clever lightweight of Lockport, N. Y., have been matched to meet in a ten-round bout at a boxing show to be held at the Auditorium at Buffalo, N. Y., on Friday night. Shugrue will have his hands full with Duffy, for the latter has fought Jack Britton and many other good men.

Al Lippe, who is over in Paris with a string of American fighters, has practically made up his mind to sail for Australia from England on Nov. 15 with Jeff Smith, the Bayonne middleweight, and Donberg, a French middleweight, whom Lippe claims is some fighter. Lippe has been promised three fights for each fighter. Smith's next fight some middleweight at Liverpool on Nov. 15.

Joe "Young" Shugrue, the Jersey City crack lightweight, and Jimmy Duffy, the clever lightweight of Lockport, N. Y., have been matched to meet in a ten-round bout at a boxing show to be held at the Auditorium at Buffalo, N. Y., on Friday night. Shugrue will have his hands full with Duffy, for the latter has fought Jack Britton and many other good men.

CORNELL COACHES MAKE SEVERAL CHANGES.

(Special to The Evening World.) ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 28.—As usual after a big game there was no outside practice for the Cornell varsity this afternoon. The time was taken up in a rather lengthy talk by Dr. Sharpe on the faults of Saturday's game. All of the coaches were more or less dissatisfied with the showing of the team, although it is difficult to place the blame. These talks of the coach are usually secret, but it nevertheless leaked out in the afternoon that there would be several important changes in the lineup. Among these are the shifting of Barrett from quarterback to halfback and the placing of Stabler at quarterback to run the team. Gilbert, who has been at half on the scrub, will be tried at end during the coming week.

GOLDBERG FINISHED STRONG, BUT HE LOSES FIGHT.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Jimmy Walsh, the Boston featherweight, earned a decision over Joe Goldberg of Rochester in a ten-round bout last night. Walsh was too clever for his opponent and took an early lead which he maintained throughout with the exception of three rounds when Goldberg, fighting at close range, proved his master.

The tenth round was one of the fiercest ever fought in Syracuse. Goldberg, nettled at the Bostonian's attack, sent him sprawling to the mat with a hard right swing down to the jaw which drove to his feet smiling and hammered Goldberg with rights and lefts, and when the latter left the ring certain that Walsh will defeat George he was well bested.

SAM LANGFORD WINS FROM JACK LESTER IN FIVE ROUNDS

Boston Tar Baby Drops His Opponent Five Times in the Fourth Session.

(Special to The Evening World.) TAFT, Oct. 28.—Sam Langford, the Boston tar baby, gets credit today for having knocked out Jack Lester in the fifth round of a contest that proved, as far as any actual contest was concerned, nothing more than an adulterated joke. Practically speaking, the uneven affair was over in the fourth round, in which three-minute sessions the Bostonian dropped Lester five times, the fourth saving Jack from being counted out. He failed to toe the mark when the bell sounded the start of the fifth, and Referee George Blake awarded the palm to Langford. Lester was practically on the defensive from start to finish, with Langford devoting his attention to punishing Lester about the middle with uppercuts and straight lefts and rights.

In the second round Lester was dropped for the first time. The third was more or less a comedy session, with Langford paipally taking things easy, but the fourth was a whirlwind. Five times Lester was dropped by his colored opponent, four times with body blows and the last time by a right to the jaw. It took what fight there might have been left in Lester away.

Frank Chance is still making efforts to get Stoval, who is reported to have gone to the Federal League. Faced with the possibility of Stoval jumping, it is likely that the Browns will agree to his transfer to the Yanks. The matter will be taken up by the league leaders at Chicago next week and pressure will be brought to bear on Col. Hedges to help out the New York club.

INTERCLASS GAMES TO-DAY AT COLUMBIA.

The Columbia interclass track meet to-day in South Field will consist of events similar to those contested at the intercollegiate. The seniors, with Heatty, McDonald, the metropolitan high hurdle champion, Slade and Geris are considered the favorites. They have won the meet for the past three years.

Smith to Race Kolehmainen.

Ten of the hardest distance runners of the metropolitan district will toe the scratch for the ten-mile American running championship at South Field, Columbia University, on Saturday. The seven-mile walking championship also will be decided, with half a dozen men on line for the long grid for glory and a medal. Harry Smith, who won the ten-mile championship last year in the stadium at Madison, in New York, will be called upon to defend his title against Hannes Kolehmainen, the "Flying Finn."

Midshipmen in Training. ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 28.—With half the local games behind them and the hardest contests of the schedule to start next Saturday, the Naval Academy football squad started the week's work with a lecture as to the work against Maryland Agricultural. The next three games are with Lehigh, Bucknell and Pennsylvania State in the order named.

ALL RIGHT, WE'LL TRY TO GET FOGEL.

Again we are authorized to state that the Federal League is preparing to invade the big leagues and face away a lot of the star players. In fact, we are authorized to say anything we want to about the Federal League so long as it is mentioned. The only injunction of the part of my informant was: "Cut that stuff out about Horace Fogel being with us."

Now that Walter Johnson has had his speed tested and we know that he throws a ball just 12 feet a second—half as fast as a bullet—we are going to be hard put next season to find something to take the place of "It comes over with the speed of a bullet."

"At that," remarked Grover Hartley last night, "I had just as soon be hit with a bullet."

Conkley Defends Gilbert.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 28.—Glen Conkley, the Fort Wayne, Ind., middleweight, had decidedly the best of it last night in his ten-round contest with Dick Gilbert of Cincinnati. Gilbert did not land three clean blows during the entire bout.

News From Golf Links

Matty and Mike Donlin Carrying Their Golf Clubs During the Tour of the West.

Christy Mathewson does not let baseball interfere with golf these days. When Matty is not in the box he hikes to the nearest golf course and usually picks the best local player as an opponent. Mike Donlin is also in golf uniform when the opportunity is offered. During the visit of the Giants to Sioux City, Ia., Matty and Donlin furnished an interesting exhibition on the Country Club links.

The Women's Metropolitan Golf Association yesterday played the tournament postponed from last Monday. The play was at the Essex Country Country Club. Mrs. H. R. Stockton of Plainfield won with an 87, one stroke better than Mrs. Percy Briggs and Mrs. W. J. Faith. There will be a medal play handicap to-day at Englewood with the British players, Miss Gladys Ravenscroft and Miss Muriel Dodd, competing.

Grantland Rice yesterday was the President's Cup in the 5-hole final of the Newspaper Golf Club's tournament at Van Cortlandt Park. Rice allowed Edgar Lavery 16 strokes and won by 4 up and 5 to play. The cards follow:
